

Al Capone, "Scar Face" and his mob took over Chicago's underworld in 1929

Paul Whiteman Band- 1921sheet music

Hoagy Carmichael
Recorded "Stardust" at Gennett in Richmond in 1927.
Friend of

Charles is pictured in the summer of 1924 learning to fly in a WW I training plane, the "Jenny" at

Poor eyesight kept him on the ground and sent him to Richmond to teach at 1938 Block M cheer block with 66 girls in red scarves, white knit blouses and many

1938 golf team finished second in state with Clayton Bartel, ' , Allen Coulter, Alder Hankosky, Lawrence Harris, Dick Land and Al Nicolletta, all class of 1939, with McNaughton in the center. They were known as the Divot Diggers. These boys were well dressed and well

The 1940 golf team featured the first girl golfer, Sue Land Fulmer, Class of 1941.

Duane Snodgrass, Class of 1929, well know musician from Morton got Mortonite off the ground.

Mortonite - Jig-Saw

Mortonite was a popular event in the '30's drawing people from all around the area and showcasing the local

The boys from Richmond who traveled to Europe in 1936 with McNaughton.

McNaughton photo of Hitler addressing

McNaughton thought that Hitler was a "sharp organizer and well liked" as did others who came to Germany that McNaughton's photo of Jesse Owen being escorted from the Olympics by an SS Guard after winning his medals.

Left: Mr Mrs McNaughton in 2007. Right: Charles in WWII uniform

Hitler posed with Max Scheming and his wife, actress Ann Ondra, the Aryan couple. They became part of the in crowd in

Poster of Louis and Schmeling fight in 1936

Joe Lewis went on to serve in the army from 1940-1945. Schmeling sheltered 2 sons of Jewish friends during

A German poster displaying historically Aryan ties to the original Olympic games for the

"The Brown Bomber" Joe Lewis was world champion for 11 years. He traveled

Louis became a professional wrestler in 1956 but suffered injuries ending his athletic career. He died penniless in 1981 and was buried in Arlington with full honors. He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor in 1982.